

Directions to the Country Fayre Site Public Parking

There will be clear signage with the Country Fayre Sheep Logo.
If using Sat Nav use post code ST13 8PR.

From Stoke

- From Stoke-on-Trent, head for Leek.
- When In Leek, take the Macclesfield road (A523)
- About three miles out of Leek, Fork Right, signed Heaton.
- Then take the First turning Right, you will see the car parking on your left.

From Macclesfield

- From Macclesfield take the A523 towards Leek
- After about 7 miles you will enter the village of Rushton Spencer.
- The second Pub on your left is called The Royal Oak.
- At this point, the main road,(A523) bears round to the right.
- DON'T go round to the right, instead, take the road which goes up the hill straight ahead, signed Meerbrook.
- Ignore the first left turning immediately at the top of the hill and take the next turn left. You will see the car parking on your left.

From Buxton

- From Buxton take the A53 towards Leek.
- At Blackshaw Moor, turn right by The Three Horse Shoes, situated on your right.
- Follow this road for about 3 miles through
- Meerbrook and climb up the long hill over Gun Moor.
- As you drop down the other side, you will go around an "S" bend and then meet a "Triangle" of trees.
- Turn Left, ignore the fork about 50 yards on your right and take the right turn. You need to travel past the the exhibitors entrance on your right and take the next right into the car park.

From M1 (Derby junction)

- From Derby head for Ashbourne.
- Then take the road to Leek.
- When In Leek, take the Macclesfield road (A523)
- About three miles out of Leek, Fork Right, signed Heaton.
- Then take the First turning Right, you will see the car parking on your left.

From M6

- M6 Junction 17 Sandbach.
- Go to Congleton.
- Take Buxton road out of Congleton.(A54)
- Approx. five miles out of Congleton, you will come to a cross-roads controlled by traffic lights at Bosley.
- Turn right, heading for Leek (A523). After about 3 miles you will enter the village of Rushton Spencer
- The second Pub on your left is called The Royal Oak.
- At this point, the main road,(A523) bears round to the right.
- DON'T go round to the right, instead, take the road which goes up the hill straight ahead, signed Meerbrook.
- Ignore the first left turning immediately at the top of the hill and take the next turn left. You will see the car parking on your left.